

ROLL CALL

HONORING THOSE WHO "SERVE AND PROTECT"

Greetings Chevaliers!

We have now completed our Charter Year and are in good shape to launch 2023. 2022 was a great success but I failed to meet my goal of 300 Charter Members by 19. I am sure that can be corrected quickly as the effects of the Pandemic finally subside and the economy improves.

We can all be proud of our Awardees for 2022. One from Texas and one from Illinois with one in process from Virginia. I am extremely proud that one of them became the National Law Officer of the Year.

You can find more about each of them at <http://illfortyandeight.com/blue-chevaliers/> in the past copies of "Roll Call".

We now have Blue Chevalier Decals available. See the last page for description and details. Patches will be available in late February and we can take orders now.

We need to seek out Law Officers and Organizations for recognition this year. We have retired Officers as members who I hope will link up with their colleagues and find great candidates.

On a personal note; My health issues have returned and I will be undergoing surgery again and treatment for the foreseeable future. Therefore, Renny will be strapped with another duty of answering your inquires and collecting 2023 dues and taking orders for shirts, decals, patches and additional pins. Hopefully, I will be able to help along the way.

I feel the Blue Chevalier Project is growing in membership and support not just because it is new and has a beautiful pin. Many of us support a variety of programs and projects within La Société because it is in our nature as Voyageurs Militaire to do so. At the heart of Blue Chevalier membership is that it allows any and all of us, at the grass roots locale level, to seek out, support and honor those within law enforcement in our own communities - and without limits or any special criteria except deserved recognition. It should be remembered that at this point, it is a stand-alone law enforcement recognition project within Public Relations. However, last year my locale used a Blue Chevalier award to a local officer as a stepping stone to selection and submission to the Special Awards Law Officer of the Year Program. Something to consider. As best I try, I cannot get all program pins on my chapeau, but I proudly wear my Blue Chevalier pin (along with my P.A.L.S. pin) in a prominent display of support. I've seen the new stickers and they are awesome - a great value and allows showing another level of support. As the new Public Relations Directeur, I want to thank Bob Cearlock and the Blue Chevalier advisors for their herculean efforts to grow and sustain this project. The comments and support received about the program at the Public Relations table at Nationale indicates a great future for it!
