

ROLL CALL

HONORING THOSE WHO "SERVE AND PROTECT"

Only about three months before official launch of the Blue Chevaliers Program. We need to get ready to be actively pursuing the mission.

If you have not paid your dues, please do so ASAP. If you have not recruited a new member, please do so now. If you have not submitted a Law officer or Organization for recognition, make it a priority to do so.

If your Locale or Grand has nominated a 40et8 Law Officer of the year or a Law Officer as Hero of the year, then make sure he or she has been submitted to the Blue Chevaliers for recognition also.

Robert "OB1" Cearlock
Project Manager

"For me, excitement is building as we look forward to Blue Chevalier becoming a full program within La Société. Still formulating ideas, a formal proposal and suggestions on how to implement. A lot to consider including how to manage income versus expenses as we move forward. Of course, a lot will be determined by the new Directeur and the appointments in the various areas of responsibility. Very shortly, the existing project committee will be presenting a proposed plan for implementation. Those that are interested in being an integral part of this new venture, you must ensure when your Grand appointments go into Nationale, your intentions are known.

Things have slowed down a bit in membership but a few PUFLs have come in. We of course look forward to Nationale and visiting with all of our members and having our great merchandise available. I will be bringing all of it with me in the anticipation of turning all of our stock over to the new committee.

Great to see so many awards going out! If your Locale, Grand or you personally want to make a donation, please consider doing so... we recognize our donors and are humbled by your generosity during these tough times and a lot of need out there. Each donation is publicly recognized in support of law enforcement. Stop by our table on Wednesday in Sandusky - we'll be there all day and available at all times. We will have our decals, patches, pens and if you want an extra pin, they will be $5.00 after we verify your membership."

Public Relations Directeur, Nationale

This citation is gratefully presented to
Deputy Kasey Kurtz
Brown County Sheriff's Dept.

In recognition of Deputy Kurtz's demonstration of the highest standard of "Protect and Serve" when he rescued a young girl from cold flood waters on June 22, 2022. The young Lady had been swept away by the current and had stopped responding to her Father from the shore. Deputy Kurtz arrived on scene and was shuttled down stream on a UTV by a Volunteer Firefighter where he entered the water and walked then swam to her rescue. This quick action by Deputy Kurtz and those who assisted him saved the young Lady from a terrible fate.

CITATION OF APPRECIATION
This citation is gratefully presented to
Officer Lorenzo Olivas
El Paso Police Dept.

In recognition of Officer Olivas's continued demonstration of the highest standard of "Protect and Serve. Officer Olivas was traveling on the 8700 block of Castner when he observed an overturned ATV in an empty dirt lot. He stopped his unmarked unit and located a male pinned under the ATV. He was able to call out to dispatch to request medical personnel to the scene. He and a passerby were able to pull the ATV off the male who was conscious but unable to move. Officer Olivas continued to the male and stabilize him until medical personnel arrive on scene. Medical personnel were able to get the male to a local hospital where he was admitted for his injuries.or
If not for Officer Olivas's actions and visual perception of the area, it is unknown how long the male would have been pinned under the ATV, or if anyone would have noticed an overturned ATV in a dirt lot with with limited lighting. Officer Olivas's actions if not saving this male's life, saved him from sustained serious bodily injury.

CITATION OF APPRECIATION
This citation is gratefully presented to
Officer Joel Martinez
El Paso Police Dept.

In recognition of Officer Martinez's continued demonstration of the highest standard of to "Protect and Serve. In 2021 Officer Martinez volunteered to oversee the Mission Valley area Beer Runs and Retail theft initiative, along with the new trend of Theft of Catalytic Converters. Prior to taking over Beer Runs and Retail Thefts, the solvability ratio in these types of cases was under 1%. These cases had little to no resolution and many were going unassigned, leaving countless victims with no justice. Officer Martinez spearheaded the task to address these types of cases, even though he is not a detective (detectives are usually the ones to investigate these crimes) and, from the onset, was assigned 635 cases. To date he has cleared 170 cases by arrest, citation, or other positive means. Officer Martinez has single-handedly raised the 1% solvability rate to 26.8%. Further, his exceptional work has inspired a new approach to these crimes and other tactical units are now handling beer runs and retail thefts effectively. In addition, Officer Martinez was selected by his peers and supervisors as the Mission Valley's Tactical Unit Officer of the year for 2021.

Officer Alexis Callaway
Senioia Police Department

In recognition of Officer Callaway's continued demonstration of the highest standard of "to Protect and Serve." On December 19, 2022 Officer Alexis Callaway and Sgt. Justin Forrester of the Senioia Police Department responded to a 911 call about a 1 month old infant that was not breathing. The infant was in his Grandmothers arms unresponsive. Officer Callaway grabbed the child flipped him on his back and began back thrusts to open his airway. All the while Sgt. Forrester was talking with 911 and keeping the family calm. In a few seconds the baby spit up liquid and began breathing. It turned out that the Grandmother had given the baby gripe water, an over the counter remedy for colic that caused the reaction. The child had regained his color and began to loudly cry, to the relief of everyone. Officer Callaway's extensive CPR training resulted in her immediate action and response to rescue the child. She has been in law enforcement for 4 years. Officer Callaway was awarded the Life Saving Award at the Senioia City Council Meeting on March 6, 2023.
